About Gillis

With a 140 year history, Gillis is the oldest not-for-profit organization of its type in the Kansas City metropolitan area. Gillis offers services to families and children residential services for boys 5 to 18, an alternative education school for students from 26 school districts, and community-based services including crisis intervention and reunification programs.

The Mission of Gillis is to help at-risk children and families reach their potential through education, counseling and social services.

The Vision of Gillis is that all children and families will live in emotionally stable, safe and nurturing environments.
